Ann commands, and we'll o - bey, O - ver the hills and far a - way.

Last verse far a - way.

The passage marked † - † may be played as an Introduction.

2. All gentlemen that have a mind
To serve the Queen that's good and kind,
Come 'list and enter into pay
Then over the hills and far away.
O'er the hills, &c.
3. Here's forty shillings on the drum
For those that volunteers do come,
With shirts, and clothes and present pay,
When over the hills and far away.
O'er the hills, &c.
4. Come on then, boys, and you shall see
We every one shall captains be,
To dress and strut as well as they
When over the hills and far away.
O'er the hills, &c.
5. What though our friends our absence mourn
We with all honour shall return,
And then we'll sing both night and day
Over the hills and far away.
O'er the hills, &c.
